Delia Norrris scoops surprise Ladies Championship prize

Delia Norris was the surprise winner of the second Ladies Championship Singles today.

She won all five of her games in the Swiss format tournament, in which players face opponents on the same (or similar) number of victories in subsequent rounds.

By the end of the fifth round she couldn't be beaten (as even a loss in a sixth round would have given her the title on the 'who beat whom' rule).

Eleven Ladies played the whole tournament and we are indebted to Mary Chambers, who at 9pm the previous evening, agreed to fill in for a couple of games in the morning to even up numbers at least for the first two rounds.

Delia is the second winner of the magnificent Ladies Championship Trophy donated by Rosie Richardson, who was courtside all day and generously hosted everyone to revetments during the day and drinks on the terrace afterwards.

A big thank you to Rosie from everyone :O)
