27 April - Delia Norris beats Hubby Ian in Handicap Singles final

It was a family affair at the end of a long first tournament of the season when Delia Norris added her name to the Black Ball trophy winners list today.

It was a long and taxing day of mostly tight games, as one might have hoped for with handicap evening out the entire field.

Delia got off to a poor start in losing to Dianne Browne in her first match, improved markedly in her second to beat Mary Gaynor and then kept her cool (and lead) to thwart Chris Roberts.

Her block was decided on point difference following a three way tie and two of the other blocks were similarly tight.

Only in Block B was there an undefeated winner in the shape of Colin Morgan.

The four runners up also progressed to the main knock-out and here Delia Norris and Richard Peperell won a great games to both sneak past Goldring and Morgan respectively 7-6.

Ian Norris and Dianne Brown won through to the semis as well, and all four still in the competition duly qualified for the Southern Area Final of the All England Handicap (national competition) for which this PCC tournament was acting as a qualifier.

The knock-out format happened to keep Mr & Mrs Norris apart in the semis and both duly prevailed to set up an intriguing final with Ian defending 10 extra turns.

In the event it was all too much for him as Delia played faultlessly and won at a canter 7-0 with two extra turns standing. Well done Delia indeed!

Special thanks go Philip Allison for standing in for a late withdrawal and to Jim Walter for 'having the balls' to enter his first singles tournament and seeing his play improve throughout the day.

Handicap changes after this tournament:

Mary Gaynor: 4 to 5

Delia Norris: 8 to 7

Dianne Brown: 8 to 7
