24 June - Mike Fensome and Rick Lilley win the Cave & Wolfe Doubles Salvors

Rick Lilley, who only started playing croquet in April, teamed up with the experienced Mike Fensome to win this season's Restricted 'Cave & Wolfe' Doubles tournament today. They beat the Helena Fensome & Madeleine Probert combo in a close final that went right to the 13th hoop. Dianne Browne & John Maguire were places third and Frances Colman & Russell Robinson fourth. It was so good to see so many of our top players supporting this tournament (which hasn't always enjoyed good participation numbers), and taking on higher handicapped players as partners - complying with this tournament's eligibility rules that combined handicaps must be 10 or more. The holders were the Peperell brothers, Richard and Tony, who were very unlucky to lose all three of their block games 6-7. And it was especially good to see 'Class of 2019' (not so) newcomers - Rick Lilley, Russell Robinson and Carol Wadsworth - in the field. It was a most enjoyable day all round.
