13 August 2014 - Raghu Iyer wins One Ball title for first time

Our lovely One Ball trophy will have a new name on it this season after Raghu Iyer won the afternoon's annual tournament. Raghu made good use of his bisques to beat all that came before him, recording a convincing +7 win over Chris Roberts in particular, who, as in a GC encounter a few weeks ago, couldn't live with the number of bisques conceded. Others made a better job of defending the bisques but when Raghu defeated Ian Norris in the fifth round, he took an unassailable lead over the other six players, rendering the planned final round unnecessary. Raghu's ball placement and subsequent hoop running, was very accurate this afternoon and was the key to his success.
