9th May - Colin wins again!

Colin Morgan won the Drawn Partners Tournament no.1 today and used the services of two partners to pull off the victory.

John Kennedy thankfully 'made up the numbers' in the morning but had to leave as planned at lunchtime so Frances Colman took his place in the afternoon.

Two more wins saw the 'partnership' end the day undefeated and win the champagne, but Frances sportingly donated her's back to the Club as her (circumstances forced) paring with Colin was perhaps a little too strong.

Ralph Chambers and Bruce Mason squeezed out Mike Fensome and for the runners-up spot as those remaining on a bitterly cold afternoon, headed for the bar . .
