9th July - Rosie Richardson wins New 80+ Singles Tournament

"It was worth admitting being 80, wasn't it!" laughed Rosie Richardson soon after winning our new 80+ Singles Tournament today.

The winner of our latest trophy 'The Yellow Ball', was undefeated ahead of a field of 10 competitors, who could amass over 830 years between them!

The surprise package of the event was relative newcomer Ray Broadhead, in his first season and first tournament, who can be very proud to have ended as runner-up.

Amongst his victims was our President Smokey Eades who missed out on a place in the final by just that one loss.

The whole event was played at a leisurely pace and, amid much laughter, there was some surprisingly serious croquet going on.

It seems that this Tournament, perhaps even more than the others that we have introduced, was particularly welcomed and enthusiastically supported.

How nice it was to be visited by former Chairman Ken Cotterell and Margaret.

If you are due to turn 80 in the next 12 months, Rosie will be up for your challenge next year!
